Please note the after photo was taken recently while all of us were vacationing in the Scottish highlands. The tartan is from the Walker clan, my mother's maiden name.
